Dear Prospective Proctor:

You are applying to proctor a final examination for a student at the United States Sports Academy. By accepting this important responsibility, you are agreeing to protect the academic integrity of this examination and follow all duties and responsibilities outlined below.

Duties of the Proctor

As proctor, you agree to:

1. Be available to monitor the student at any time during the test. The final exam is a maximum of 2 hours in length for undergraduate courses, 3 hours for Master's courses, and 3.5 hours for Doctoral courses. You must proctor the examination continuously.

2. Position yourself to have a direct view of the student’s computer screen if the computer on which the exam is administered is not able to be set to limit the actions of the student or has not been set as such.

3. Enter the final exam password into the Learning Management System and not give or allow the student to see any password information. (You will receive an email containing the exam password and testing instructions after the student has scheduled the exam.)

During this exam, the student will not be allowed to:

- Open any software application or window on the computer other than the exam window.
- Have any books, paper, or other materials on the top of the desk.
- Check email, initiate instant messaging, use a cell phone or similar communication device, or listen to any electronic device using earphones during the exam period.
- Print or copy the exam questions electronically or on paper.
- Save the exam to the local hard drive or any external storage media.
- Access any external storage device.

Individuals interested in becoming independent Academy proctors should return the second page of this document to the Academy Testing Department for review. Applications may be submitted by email (testing@ussa.edu), fax (251-625-1035) or mail to:

All proctors MUST have a signed proctor application on file with the Academy Testing Department for EACH student for which they agree and are approved to proctor. All applications must be approved PRIOR to exam passwords being sent.

Students using human proctors are required to pay any costs incurred with using this third-party service. The Academy reserves the right to verify proctor qualifications, require additional evidence of eligibility, or require a different proctor be selected. All proctors are subject to approval.
